Subd to Secty

A draft sanctioning the advance is put up, but there is a point for consideration whether the rules in Art. 136 of the Civil Acct. Code are to be held applicable to superior servants as in the present case.

The rule only allows advances being given "to public officers who desire to build houses, for occupation by themselves at places where no houses are available or where house rent is exceptionally high."

To my knowledge this is the first case of a house building advance being applied for by an inferior servant. So this case will form a precedent if the applcn is granted, the point is subd for orders

Sir,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your No. 3688 of 22nd Ultimo, R.F. 150-95, enquiring whether a menial servant can be given the benefit of the rules for the grant of House building advances and in reply to state that such advances are allowed by the Civil Account Code only to "Officers", a term which includes ministerial and Gazetted Officers and is never known to include menial servants. I am therefore of opinion that the rules in question do not seem to extend to peons.
